In regard to Rev. William Robinson (Y.C. 1773) I can not find that he had any connection with the College after his graduation until he became Tutor in 1778. Yet his uniting with the College Church in May 1776 seems to show that he intended to reside for a while at least in New Haven. Reb. Dr. Daggett was at this period the Professor of Divinity in the College. It is quite poſsible that he gave instruction to graduates preparing for the Gospel Ministry, but I find no evidence that he did.

Pres. Stiles preached a Sermon at his funeral in Novr. 1780, in which discourse he doubtleſs gave a sketch of his life & labours. This sermon, was I suppose, never printed, & I can not find the original or a copy among the Dr's MSS.

It is poſsible that Rev. Dr. Sprague of Albany may among his collections have secured something respecting Dr. Daggett's labors as an instructor in Theology.
